NESTLED IN THE OLD TOWN

Hotel du Vin Edinburgh sits just off the bustling Royal Mile in the Old Town, between Edinburgh's iconic castle and Holyrood Palace. You're right on the doorstep of fabulous shopping, impressive museums and galleries, the striking Georgian and Victorian architecture and during August, the world's biggest arts festival – the Edinburgh Fringe.

Once a poorhouse, then asylum, then science lab, and now a stunning luxury hotel, the building has taken many guises since it was built in 1743. In the summer months, our central courtyard transforms into an al fresco dining area, but don't worry if the weather's not on your side – keep safe from the elements at the Bistro du Vin kitchen. Enjoy afternoon tea, a catch up in the bar with a cocktail, a cosy nightcap in the Whisky Snug, or a cigar and tippie in the heated Cigar Bothy.

If you're looking for somewhere a little different Hotel du Vin Edinburgh is bursting with character, our stylish and unconventional function rooms are just the answer for a business meeting, a private party, a family get-together or wedding celebration.

THE PERFECT LOCATION

Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland is situated on Scotland's East Coast on the south side of the Firth Of Forth. Home of the Scottish parliament, Edinburgh is enriched with culture, fine architecture and hosts of one of the most prestigious universities in the United Kingdom, The University of Edinburgh. The most well known attractions are Edinburgh Castle, the Royal Mile, the Holyrood Palace and The National Gallery of Scotland. With a population of just under 500,000 in 2011, Edinburgh is Scotland's second largest city after Glasgow.

The historical centre of Edinburgh is divided into two parts by the Gardens of Princes Street. These gardens were originally marshlands, and can still be seen as such on earlier paintings of the city. To the south of these gardens is the Old Town, dominated by the world famous Edinburgh castle, situated on an extinct volcano. The castle looks down on the shopping district of the city, Princes Street, the beginning of the Royal Mile. To the north of the gardens is the New Town where you will find modern architecture such as the Scottish parliament buildings and The National Gallery of Scotland. To the west of the castle is the financial district, where the banks and insurance companies fuel the hub of Edinburgh's economy. The West of the city is also home to Edinburgh Zoo.
