NESTLED DEEP IN THE OLD TOWN

---

Deep within Edinburgh's Old Town, this former city asylum is now home to one of the most stylish boutique hotels in Edinburgh city centre.

Offering 47 timelessly styled bedrooms and suites. Our Edinburgh hotel has a big heart and personality with a trademark bistro and mezzanine bar, unique events rooms for business or private dining, cigar bothy, whisky snug, intriguing Laroche tasting room and an outstanding wine cellar all on offer. The historic capital has a wealth of iconic sites to visit, great shopping and of course, true Scottish hospitality. Just moments from the Royal Mile with the castle at the top and the Palace of Holyroodhouse at its foot, the recently reopened National Museum of Scotland and beside the open parkland of the meadows.

OUR ROOMS

STANDARD DOUBLE ROOMS

Queen size bed with an ensuite bathroom with bath and shower over.

SUPERIOR DOUBLE ROOMS

A spacious double room with free standing bath and walk in monsoon shower.

STUDIO SUITES

Spacious open plan rooms with a king size bed, ensuite bathroom with walk-in monsoon shower and free standing roll top bath.

TWIN BEDS ROOMS

With either ensuite bathroom with bath and shower over or free standing bath and walk in monsoon shower.

LARGE SUITES

Errazuriz is a stunning front facing open plan room with three original high windows which fill the room with natural daylight. At the far end of the room sits our signature deep, cast iron roll top bath. The Catena Zapata suite is situated on the top floor in the old building with a view of the Salisbury Crags. This room has the original wooden beams exposed in the ceiling and a sofa bed which makes it ideal for families. La Grande Dame is one of our more quiet suites, facing the courtyard it also comes with its own private balcony, semi open plan monsoon drench shower and deep roll top bath. There is also a sofa area where you can watch TV.

EXECUTIVE SUITE

Dom Perignon is our executive suite and the largest room in the hotel featuring a private balcony and emperor size bed. There is also a partition separating the bed from the sitting area. In each of these areas there is a large plasma TV. The room also benefits from a large, partly open plan bathroom with a battleship bath.

THINGS TO DO

Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland is situated on Scotland's East Coast on the south side of the Firth Of Forth.

Home of the Scottish parliament, Edinburgh is enriched with culture, fine architecture and hosts of one of the most prestigious universities in the United Kingdom, The University of Edinburgh. The most well known attractions are Edinburgh Castle, the Royal Mile, Holyrood Palace and The National Gallery of Scotland.

With a population of just under 500,000 in 2011, Edinburgh is Scotland's second largest city after Glasgow.
