BRIGHTON

A STONE'S THROW FROM THE PIER

Just a stone's throw from the seafront, Hotel du Vin Brighton is situated in the Lanes conservation area.

Originally built by a wine merchant on the site of an old inn, Hotel du Vin Brighton is a collection of eccentric gothic revival and mock Tudor buildings housing 49 bedrooms. The original double-height hall is home to our fabulous wine bar and among many of the original features are a heavily carved staircase and bizarre gargoyles. The impressively large and spacious Dome room, creates a truly unique venue for an individual event.

Beyond the hotel itself lies the exciting and inspiring town, from quaint streets dotted with fabulous shops, to the famous pier and promenade.

THE DOME

The Dome Ballroom is located in Pub du Vin and has a beautiful glass paneled domed ceiling. It is our largest room with a capacity up to 90 people for a seated meal or 120 people for a standing reception and is well suited for dinner parties and conferences.

BISTRO, BAR & COURTYARD

The Bistro forms the heart of the Hotel du Vin Brighton. Bathed in natural daylight, reclaimed dark-stained floorboards, framed pictures and paintings, soft lighting and comfortable chairs with heart warming and mouth watering dishes.

The large bar area has a soft sofa seating area for smaller discussion and to sink into for that well deserved after meeting cocktail or glass of wine.

The outdoor courtyard is a private enclosed area basking in the afternoon sun, perfect for an early evening drinks reception and home to the cigar shack.

Neighboring the hotel, Pub du Vin is located within the old Sussex Arts Club. Some would presume we are a 'pub of wine', not so. Instead a traditional British pub with a twist.

BAR MEETINGS

The Hotel du Vin bar is a large and comfortable space, perfect for informal meetings and gatherings.

Our full bistro menu is also available in the bar creating a relaxed area ideal for making an afternoon of it.
