ROAST DU VIN

A British institution. Meats were traditionally roasted in front of a fire on a Sunday, dating back to the reign of King Henry VII. Since the 15th century, the royal bodyguards have been known as 'Beefeaters' because of their love of eating roast beef. In the 18th century the French started calling Englishmen 'rosbifs'. Therefore it is only fitting that 'rosbif' is the centrepiece of our perfect Sunday lunch.
